Americans Too Advanced to
Be Held by Rules—Locke
Wants Bishopric

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 3.—"The American people are too far advanced to be restricted by church rules in regard to amusements. The rules of prohibiting dancing and card playing, theaters, circuses and racing, therefore, should be abolished."

This is the gist of the report presented at the Baptist general conference by the board of bishops. Although recommending these radical changes, the bishops stipulated that the church must not be indifferent to these subjects, but that the people should be permitted to judge for themselves. The report declared the church had reiterated again and again its opposition to theater-going and gambling, but as a rule cannot fix the point "between the turf and the stock market." The report further says: "We stand united against gambling. It is recognized clearly that it is the same sin in Wall Street, that it is in the lowest resort. But we have never ventured legislatively to fix the point where race gambles passing from the turf to the stock market becomes respectable. A business man is eligible to church membership."

The report disapproves of dancing and kindred amusements as a church, but the people must judge for themselves, bearing in mind the Wesleyan injunction as to "such diversions as cannot be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus."

The report was the last half of the Episcopal report began yesterday by Bishop Cranston. It read: "We would joyfully accede the day when every Christian would abstain from amusements prohibited, but we cannot repress the conviction that Wesley dealt more wisely with the danger."

"The bishops will therefore recommend a return to the consistent treatment of this subject by Wesley; more earnestly because we are dealing with American people and the injustice of the twentieth century."

METHODISTS CONDEMN WILSON FOR HINDERING BREWERS CONGRESS Amid loud cheering the Methodist delegates, by a rising vote, adopted a resolution reiterating the attack on Secretary of Agriculture Wilson when he was made honorary chairman of the Brewers' Congress.

The resolution declares that millions of Christians urged Secretary Wilson to decline the brewers' tender, but the protests were ignored except when the secretary issued a "frivolous, fallacious fall across stereotyped excuse."

The resolution read: "Resolved, That while we pledge ourselves to remain loyal citizens and support those in authority in every laudable, lawful and legal way, we hereby announce our conviction that, in so aiding the liquor traffic by a persistent endorsement of the brewers' congress in the face of an earnest protest, those in authority forfeited their claim to future franchise of the Christian, sober manhood of the nation."

REV. C. E. LOCKE OF LOS ANGELES MAY BE BISHOP MINNEAPOLIS, May 3.—Interest in the Methodist conference today is centered in the discussion of probable selections for the bishopric. It appears certain today that the number of bishops will be increased. Rev. C. E. Locke of Los Angeles, is among the most prominent candidates. Quiet electioneering is progressing.

GET OUT THE HOE AND THE SHOVEL AND ATTACK WEEDS

Tomorrow is clean-up day, and don't forget it. Tomorrow is the day set by the Civic Improvement Association for a concerted attack upon weeds and unsightly places. By tomorrow evening not a lot front should be left uncleaned.

Frank Ey, chairman of the Board of City Trustees, has made arrangements with the street department for hauling away whatever heaps of weeds and trash are left in the gutters by those who do the work tomorrow. This will be a great aid in the work.

Committees have been appointed for five wards of the city, and they are expected to have sub-committees for the various streets and portions of streets where work is to be done. Every person should see to it that his own property is cleaned up, and that other person's property who are not enterprising enough to do it is not allowed to be an eye-sore.

FROST PREVENTION WAS SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

Believed Methods to Prevent Frost Are Feasible and Practical

POMONA, May 3.—The annual meeting of the Citrus Protective League opened this morning. Every citrus section in Southern California is represented. "Frost" was the subject for the morning discussion.

THOUSAND CITRUS GROWERS TALK OF FROST PREVENTION
POMONA, May 3.—The subject of frost prevention was extensively considered in the convention of the Citrus Protective Association today. A thousand citrus growers from every section of the state were present.

This morning addresses were made by A. C. Call of Corona, C. C. Teague of Santa Paula, F. J. Smith of Pomona, and C. C. Chapman of Fullerton. In the afternoon, Alexander McAdie, chief of the weather bureau at San Francisco, and P. G. O'Gara of Oregon, the government pathological expert, gave addresses. Stereoscopic views illustrated the afternoon lectures.

The general impression following the addresses was that the elimination of frost as a deterrent to citrus culture is feasible and practicable. Distillate and coal methods of protection were discussed. A movement is afoot to make the citrus convention an annual event.

THRU BACK AS THEY TRIED TO ESCAPE

Steerage Passengers Had to Fight Against Being Barred From Upper Deck

WOULD HAVE ALL DIED LIKE RATS IN A HOLE

Were Not Warned Till Water Was Reaching Steps of the Steerage

NEW YORK, May 3.—Chairman William Alden Smith of the Senatorial Titanic probe committee, today continued the examination of the crew and steerage passengers of the Titanic. He expects to return to Washington tomorrow to continue the official probe there.

STEERAGE PASSENGERS NOT WARNED TILL ALMOST TOO LATE TO SAVE LIVES
That the steerage passengers of the Titanic had no knowledge of the accident until the water rushed into their quarters was the testimony given Chairman Smith today by Daniel Buckley, aged twenty-one, of Cork, Ireland. The steward warned the steerage passengers that they had better get to the upper decks if they did not want to be drowned. Buckley said: "I rushed upstairs, and found no lifeboats. I started back but found the water had reached the steerage steps and was coming faster. The steward tried to lock the gate barring the upper decks and a man who attempted to prevent this was knocked down. All then rushed on him and swarmed up. Five boats were already gone, and sixty were leaving. Some men got in and were ordered out by the officers. A woman whom I afterward learned was Mrs. Astor threw a shawl over me, and I remained in the boat."

LOOKOUT JEWELL OF TITANIC TESTIFIES AT BRITISH PROBE
LONDON, May 3.—The first witness in the Titanic investigation, was Lookout Archie Jewell, who testified. He declared that he saw no icebergs up to 10 o'clock Sunday night, when he was relieved from duty. Lord Mersey, presiding, granted the seafarers' Union's demand for representation at the hearing. Attorney General Isaacs then opened the case.

SECOND DYKE BROKE TODAY

Water Pours Through Great Gaps in Levees at Torras; Second Flood

BATON ROUGE, May 3.—The Mississippi levee at Bayou Sara, La., broke at noon. It is reported there is no chance to save the town. The inhabitants are fleeing. No casualties have been reported.

Water is pouring through a hundred foot gap. All the streets are inundated. Property damage is already immense. The flood is rapidly spreading over the low farm lands.

NO HOPE OF SAVING TORRAS
LEVEE—STREETS FLOODED
Baton Rouge, La., May 3.—Following another trip to the broken levee at Torras this morning, experts have abandoned all hope of repairing the levee. Water is rushing through the break at the rate of thousands of gallons a minute. Several villages have been inundated.

Hundreds of refugees arrived here today. Relief trains are carrying provisions to the hills, where the population has fled. It is believed that thousands will be homeless before the river lowers.

NEWSPAPERS ARE TIED UP

Chicago Printers Aid Pressmen—"Newsies" and Drivers Halt Delivery

CHICAGO, May 3.—The efforts of the papers to issue regular editions were further hampered today when numbers of Local No. 16 of the Typographical Union quit. They were ordered out pending a conference between a committee representing the papers and printers. At noon no paper affiliated with the Publishers' Association had been issued. The plants are completely tied up.

NEWSIES AND DRIVERS PREVENT PAPER DELIVERIES

CHICAGO, May 3.—With the aid of non-unionists all the morning papers appeared, despite the strike of the union web pressmen. The situation is complicated by the refusal of union drivers and newsies to handle the papers produced by non-unionists. The printers' union will meet today to decide whether or not to join the strike.

Judge Burke enjoined the striking wagon drivers from interfering with strikebreakers driving the newspaper wagons. However, many non-union drivers were stopped, the strikers destroying numerous bundles of newspapers.

GOV. JOHNSON GIVES GREAT ADDRESS TO TREMENDOUS CROWD

Convincing Arguments Presented in Favor of Ex-president's Candidacy--Evans Goes on Record

In the greatest speech made here this campaign and before one of the largest political gatherings ever held in Santa Ana, Gov. Hiram W. Johnson last night drove home argument after argument in favor of the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt. The Grand Opera House was filled to overflowing. Many who came to hear the governor were turned away for lack of room. They missed hearing a masterful address by a man in dead earnest, for if ever a man impressed an audience as being in dead earnest that man was Gov. Johnson and the audience was last night's.

That Theodore Roosevelt is the only Republican running for the nomination who can be elected was the keynote of the governor's address. Roosevelt alone can save the tariff on products in which this county is vitally interested.

Gov. Johnson arrived here yesterday evening about 5:30 o'clock with an escort of twenty automobiles filled with men and women voters of Santa Ana. A drum corps furnished music for the parade at Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana, and deserves great credit for its work.

Before the opening of the doors last night, the Santa Ana Band played on the street. Within a few minutes after the doors were opened the opera house was filled.

The audience was an enthusiastic one. If there were any one who had any doubt about the sincerity of the enthusiasm of the people of Orange county in favor of Roosevelt, that doubt would have been dispelled by the greetings of last night.

With the band playing "The Star Spangled Banner," the audience rose.

When Gov. Johnson came on the stage with J. P. Baumgartner, C. S. Crookshank and John Beatty of Santa Ana, S. C. Evans of Riverside and Alexander McCabe of Sacramento, Gov. Johnson's secretary, he was met with cheers and the Chautauqua salute. Many stood up to wave their greetings.

The stage was decorated with flags. In front of the speaker's stand was a picture of Roosevelt. On the stage as vice-presidents were men and women from various points of the county.

J. P. Baumgartner as a member of the executive committee of the State Progressive Republican League, introduced C. S. Crookshank, cashier of the First National Bank, as chairman for the evening.

"Tonight I introduce to you," said the chairman, a distinguished citizen of Riverside, S. C. Evans. He served Riverside as mayor. He is highly spoken of and esteemed in his own home. He is a candidate for the Republican nomination for congress. We accord him the privilege of speaking tonight."

Evans Speaks
"With the primaries right on," said Evans, "I can hardly expect to interest you in my affair, but I want to pave the way for more heart to heart talks later in the summer."

"I am in hearty accord with the present state administration. In 1896, in my first speech before the city council, I advocated some of the measures now incorporated in the state government. In 1906 I aided in the fight for a city charter that has some of those ideas incorporated in it. I hold that the present administration is a tribute to the reason and intelligence of the people of California. It is safe, constructive and energetic."

Evans made an appeal to orange, lemon and sugar men for their votes. He said that he had been through the mill in the tariff on oranges matter. He had seen foreign countries and knew the wages paid, and by all his experience he was a protectionist.

"When our family left the old home in Indiana in 1879," said Mr. Evans, "it was debated whether to accept an opening in one of the Southern states or go to California; and I well remember hearing my father say that he believed the Republican party would always retain the principle of protection as one of its fundamental doctrines, and that he was going West and raise citrus fruits."

"Every dollar he had in the world was invested in the enterprise, and I have seen through it all and at a time when much of the way was experiment and change. I have followed all the tariff discussion pertaining to our products. I have spent a whole year seeing how competing people in foreign lands live, work, and receive their pay, and by every instinct and experience I am a protectionist, always have been, and should certainly continue if elected representative of the Eleventh congressional district, whether it be for

Reading Blythe
Johnson said that he had read Blythe's article in the Saturday Evening Post in which the prediction was made that Taft would carry various states that have since gone headlong for Roosevelt.

"I saw the utter futility of any political writer these days sitting among politicians and attempting to prognosticate," said Mr. Evans, "for today the people are the politicians, are writing history. There is a new era, a new force in politics—the people."

"As here in California, the nation hereafter must reckon with the people regardless of politicians."

APRICOTS NOT NORMAL CROP

Dried Fruit Man of Tustin
Writes to San Jose Paper
Concerning Prospect

Dr. J. G. Bernicke of Tustin, corresponding secretary of the Orange County Dried Fruit Association, has the following statement in the California Farmer of San Jose:
Southern California Apricot Crop
I enclose a statement regarding the apricot crop in this end of the state. Growers are naturally interested in learning how the crop prospects are in other portions of the state, and it is frequently difficult to obtain reliable information.

In two different farm papers of last week there were two widely differing statements concerning the coming apricot crop, one to the effect that it would be a 25 per cent crop, another that there would be a bumper crop in the state. It is evidently impossible for both statements to be true, and I regard neither to be true. There will not be a bumper crop in the state, because the southern end of the state will fall much below the normal crop. How much will not be certainly known until the middle of May. A local packer of long experience estimates the crop prospect of Orange County as 50 per cent, but present indications point even to a lower per cent. The winter drought and then the rains coming at blooming time have caused a peculiar condition of bloom which is working out unfavorably for the crop. It seems that the earlier bloom set the best, but the damp weather of March and April favored the rot which has greatly thinned out the fruit on trees that promised quite well.

Ventura County also will fall short of a normal crop, perhaps not as much as Orange County. And Los Angeles County also will not have a full crop. Cucamonga of San Bernardino County now reports 25 per cent crop. Remembering the Ventura and Orange Counties are, next to Santa Clara County, the largest producers of dried apricots, there is certainly not going to be a normal crop of this article in the state, to say nothing of a bumper crop. What growers need is a reliable report of the crop, and not exaggeration either way.

J. G. BERNICKE, M. D.,
Corresponding Secretary.

There Are Other Santa Ana
People Similarly Situated

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of Santa Ana residents? After you have read the following, quietly answer the question.

William Thurbay, 417 E. Walnut St., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "Of and on for years I was bothered by my back and kidneys. To stoop or walk a little distance made the dull, heavy ache in my back more severe and my rest was badly broken. Further evidence of fault with my kidneys was shown by a heavy sediment in the kidney secretions. Reading about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Dean's Drug Store (now Wheeler & Mater's Drug Store) and soon after I commenced their use, I noticed improvement. My back became strong and free from pain and the difficulty with the kidney secretions was corrected." (Statement given March 8, 1907.)

A Permanent Cure
On August 16, 1908, Mr. Thurbay was interviewed and he said: "I have not changed my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills since I recommended them over two years ago. The cure they effected has been permanent."

INFORMATION CONCERNING POSTAL SAVINGS SYSTEM

Information concerning the postal savings bonds to be issued July 1, 1912, has been given out as follows by the postoffice department:

Description of Postal Savings Bonds
1. By applying on or before June 1, 1912, depositors of the postal savings system may exchange the whole or a part of their deposits for United States registered or coupon bonds in denominations of $20, $100, and $500, bearing interest from July 1, 1912, at the rate of two and one-half per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of issue, both principal and interest payable 20 years from that date in United States gold coin.

2. Postal savings bonds are exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under state, municipal or local authority.

Conversion of Deposits
3. Applications for the conversion of deposits into bonds on July 1, 1912, must be received on or before June 1, 1912, by the postmaster at the depository office where the certificates were issued. The postmaster will supply an application form, which must be made out in triplicate. The depositor must indorse and surrender with his application postal savings certificates covering the amount of the bonds desired, for which the postmaster will give him a receipt. When the postmaster receives the bonds applied for he will notify the depositor and will deliver the bonds on presentation of the receipt for the certificates surrendered.

4. The conversion of deposits into bonds at a date less than one year after the certificates began to bear interest forfeits interest on the deposits as in the case of withdrawal for any other purpose.

5. Postal savings deposits converted into bonds are not counted as a part of the maximum of $500 allowed one depositor, and there is no limitation on the amount of available postal savings bonds which may be acquired finally by a depositor. The exchange is considered as taking effect on July 1, and a depositor who has applied to convert into bonds all or part of the maximum balance of $500 may deposit an additional amount in July, though the bonds may not yet have been delivered.

6. Postal savings bonds can be procured only by the conversion of postal savings deposits and will not be issued to persons who are not depositors. They may be sold or assigned to any person, however, by the holder, and when a registered bond is assigned a new bond will be issued in the name of the owner.

Registered and Coupon Bonds
7. The depositor's application must indicate whether bonds are desired in registered or coupon form. Coupon bonds are preferable for a depositor who intends to hold them for a short time only, and who has ample facilities for their safe-keeping. These bonds are payable to bearer, and the title will pass by delivery without indorsement. Interest on coupon bonds is collected by means of interest coupons, which are detached by the holder as they become due.

Registered bonds are preferable for persons intending to hold them for a considerable period, and they differ from coupon bonds in the following respects:

(a) They have inscribed upon their face the names of the persons to whom they are issued.
(b) They are payable only to the persons to whom issued or their assigns.
(c) The ownership of registered bonds can be transferred only by assignment in proper form.

Assignment of Bonds
8. Registered bonds are assigned by the use of a form printed on the back, properly dated and acknowledged. When the assignment is made by mark, it must be witnessed by at least one person other than the officer before whom it is made. A ledger account is opened in the treasury department at Washington with each holder of one or more registered bonds, and when such bonds are assigned they should be transmitted by the new owner to the secretary of the treasury (division of loans and currency) for transfer on the books of the department. Registered bonds can not be exchanged for coupon bonds. Coupon bonds may be converted into registered bonds, without charge, at the request of the holder.

Assignment by Minors
9. Under the regulations of the treasury department a minor can not assign registered bonds without the consent of a duly appointed guardian or trustee, evidence of whose authority must be submitted. A minor has the right to convert his postal savings certificates into registered bonds, but if he should desire to assign the bonds during his minority he must comply with this regulation. This difficulty does not exist in the case of coupon bonds, which are transferred by mere delivery.

Payment of Interest on Bonds
10. Interest on registered bonds is paid by checks drawn at the treasury department in favor of the registered holder. These checks are sent by mail to the postoffice address of the holder, and the holder of a registered bond should notify the secretary of the treasury (division of loans and currency) of any change in his postoffice address at least 15 days before the interest falls due. Checks for interest on registered bonds, as well as interest coupons detached from coupon bonds, are payable on presentation at the United States treasury or at the office of any assistant treasurer of the United States. Interest on postal savings bonds may be cashed by postmasters under the same conditions as other government paper.

Bonds Lost or Destroyed
11. Payment on registered bonds that have been lost or stolen may be stopped by notifying the secretary of the treasury (division of loans and currency) at Washington. If coupon bonds are lost the government does not undertake to protect the owner against the wrongful holder, but recognizes the bearer only. The owner has recourse only to such means as he could use to recover any other valuable property. When bonds, either registered or coupon, have been destroyed wholly or in part, or defaced, a claim may be filed with the secretary of the treasury under certain prescribed conditions for their replacement. Such claims will not be allowed for coupons which have been detached from coupon bonds.

Information Relating to Ownership
12. United States bonds are issued, transferred, and redeemed under such regulations as the secretary of the treasury may prescribe. Requests by holders for additional information after the delivery of the bonds should be addressed to the secretary of the treasury (division of loans and currency), Washington, D. C.

Purchase by the Board of Trustees
13. On the application of any holder the board of trustees will purchase postal savings bonds at par. Registered bonds sent to the board for purchase must be assigned to the "Board of Trustees, Postal Savings System."

FRANK H. HITCHCOCK,
Postmaster General.

Wrong Idea About Whales
Since the time of Aristotle people have assumed that whales blow water through their noses, not, as is actually the case, condensed breath. That this view was wrong is proved by the fact alone that the throat of the whale, which is the only way that the water can enter, is not connected with the air passage.

chines. After this year presidential delegates will no longer be selected by political machines, but by the direct primary. The reason? One man had the virility and manhood to go into the states and preach that the people have a right to dictate, and that man is the leader of the progressive movement, Theodore Roosevelt. (Applause)

"There was only one man who could lead, who by his work in two short months has done more for the cause than a host of others could have done in a much longer time, who did this because of his militant courage, because no obstacle is ever too great for him to attempt to surmount. He has made a fight for the basic principles of government, just as we made a fight in this state.

"I am fond of saying to the women that there is a special privilege in this state. Six states have woman's suffrage, but this state only of the six has the presidential preference primary. You remember that under the old convention system the bosses presented the candidates on both sides, not caring which choice was made. That is not our way of doing things now, and California women will join in this great election.

National Figures
"Only two national figures are in this campaign. It is also asserted that there is a third, but he is merely local. If you have read the reactionary papers you have noticed, first, that they are wailing over a Progressive who is not supported by the state and nation, and, second, that they are showering praise upon Taft and abuse upon Roosevelt. The San Francisco Chronicle and the Los Angeles Times deal at great length upon the senator from Wisconsin, hoping to create a discord in the progressive ranks so that the old railroad machine may ride into power."

Johnson told the story of the rat that drank of spilled liquor, until the rat, standing on his hind legs, called out: "Bring on that cat."

"The old machine that was done up in 1910 is now spilling this discord and gradually getting up courage to the point where it thinks it can have a fight, but after May 14 it will draw back in a hole like a rat."

"This third candidate (La Follette) spends his time in abuse of Roosevelt, and puts the soft pedal on Taft."

"In order to have the record out for comparison with what La Follette may say when he comes to Santa Ana, Johnson quoted La Follette's declaration that "Theodore Roosevelt is the greatest living American." These were the exact words used by Chairman Crookshank, speaking of Roosevelt, when introducing Johnson. Another statement of La Follette's concerning Roosevelt was that Roosevelt is for plain, simple justice for every human being.

"The truth is," said the speaker, "that this third candidate is a candidate now only in California, hoping to add our twenty-six delegates to what he has, making sixty-two."

"You have won your progressiveism in this state, and we have it in a greater degree than anywhere else in the nation."

The Two Leaders
"Let us turn to Roosevelt and Taft. Both men have been in the president's chair. The position of each is a matter of public record."

In reviewing Roosevelt's career, Johnson pictured the pride of Americans when they saw an American citizen returning from Africa, a great figure of the world, the greatest of all living men.

"As president, he insisted on a workingman's protective measure. His successor also no insists, and the two are even on that score, except that Roosevelt was the originator."

"In his desire to check the exodus of the people from the farms to the cities, he appointed the Country Life Commission, which did fair to do much in solving the problem."

"In Chicago, Roosevelt insisted on the inspection of meats. Every time one takes a step forward to aid humanity, big business begins to yell. There has never been suggested a single humane act for women and children but what big business objects. When the 8-hour law for women was up nearly every Chamber of Commerce objected, and men declared it meant ruin to their business. Today the women are working but eight hours a day and thanking God and this administration for it, and not a single business has had to close its doors."

"Roosevelt introduced the Hepburn railroad bill. Big business objected, but he got out the big stick. The big stick? I tell you that the president or governor that won't exert his influence to get needed legislation is not worth his salt, and I promise you that while I am in office and have any big stick I shall use it for remedial legislation, even if some members of the legislature don't like it."

Good Measures
"When Roosevelt proposed the child labor law, big business cried out."

"He announced the greatest of all progressive measures—conservation, saying that what God gave us should not go to the rich few. Pinchot aided in establishing this policy, the greatest policy since the war.

"For a quarter of a century we had been needing a pure food law. You would think no one would deny such a law, yet big business cried out. But Roosevelt used the big stick, and made it a crime to adulterate food. There is the obvious crime, such as when a man assaults you and steals your money, and there is the crime that requires imagination to see. There is a man at a mahogany desk, who allows the product of his business, a food for a baby, say, to be adulterated. The latter crime is the worst of the two."

"Roosevelt has been ever preaching and ever teaching, and he has aroused the conscience of the American people to common honesty in business and politics."

Where Taft Failed
"Then came Taft. He said that he would develop the Roosevelt policies, that they are right, must be continued, that they are for the people."

"Then we saw the Country Life Commission wilt away and die. We saw the President try to destroy the railroad bill, and but for the insurgent senators it would have been destroyed."

"When I went into office we had a railroad bill that could not be enforced. We now have one with teeth in it."

Johnson spoke of the San Pedro to Los Angeles haul. The commission ordered a new rate. The railroad tried to enjoin, but failed. The railroad asked to have a depot agent arrested to test the case. The commission said no. It would arrest the head of the railroad in the state. Johnson paid a high compliment to the commission.

"Conservation fell into the hands of Richard Achilles Ballinger. Roosevelt said that if something for the people needed to be done, he would do it if the law did not prohibit it. Taft's attitude is that he will not do it unless the law specifically gives him authority. That is the difference between going forward and standing still."

Pure Food Law
"You would think no man would interfere with the pure food law, but we saw Dr. Wiley forced out just as we saw Pinchot forced out. Both had to go and are gone."

"That is the record of these two candidates."

Bugaboo Tariff
"There is always some bugaboo, and in this case it is the tariff. I recall to you a dispatch on Monday in which Roosevelt told me he favored tariff for agricultural, horticultural interests and for the benefit of the laborer."

"Listen. You can have tariff only in one way, and that is by Republican success. How can you have that success? You cannot have it under Taft this year. Any informed politician will tell you that we are going to have a change of presidents. The man who has been defeated by great majorities in nearly every state where there was a popular vote cannot be elected president."

"The progressive way of doing politics is that whoever the people want must win."

"If you nominate Taft, a Democrat will be elected. That is the truth and you know it. There is just one man who has the power and the popularity to win this contest for the Republican party, and that man is Theodore Roosevelt."

GAME PROTECTION

In making his settlement with the State Fish and Game Commission for hunter's licenses sold by him in the last year, County Clerk Williams found his footings to show that he had sold 2370 licenses and had taken in and turned over to the commission the sum of $2370.

The figures are significant, and will bear comment. They show that there is no less than 2370 persons in the county who enjoy the sport of carrying a gun occasionally in hunts for game, that there are 2370 persons personally interested in schemes for the protection, preservation and propagation of game and fish. There are a good many more than 2370 persons who hunt in this county, for a large share of the duck club members buy their licenses in Los Angeles, and the licenses that are sold by Deputy Commissioner W. K. Robinson in his rounds are not counted in Williams' totals.

What does Orange county get for the $2370 annual tax upon the hunters of the county?

Generally speaking, it gets the services of one deputy who puts in his time in looking after the enforcement of game laws, and whose principal duty seems to be to see that all hunters have licenses. It gets the services of other deputies occasionally. It gets a few cans of a few thousand trout free for distribution in the Santiago, Trabuco and San Juan creeks. It gets the general benefit that comes to the entire state from the supervision of the game commission.

There should be some system instituted whereby the hunters of this county will get more benefit from the $2370 than they now get.

If you listen to the average hunter you will find that he thinks that the county gets very little for the money it pays. He sees birds getting scarcer every year. When the deer season opens he and perhaps a hundred others climb all over Old Saddleback with nary a sight of a buck as reward. If he has no membership in a gun club, he finds himself fighting for the privilege of shooting from the road.

The most serious allegation that he may make is that quail and doves are getting scarcer every year. If the rate of extermination keeps up, it will not be long before Orange County will have no quail hunting—it has blessed little as it is. Men who live in the mountains and who know whereof they speak say that hunters are but a secondary cause for the decrease in the number of quail. They say that "varmints" are their worst enemies. Lacking the old-time protection of vast cactus patches, the quail and their nests become easy prey for wildcats and coyotes.

In short, the Orange County hunter wants to see less enthusiasm on the part of the game commission toward enforcing the hunter's license law, which is a good law, and more enthusiastic, active steps in the fight against "varmints." It is true that the commission pays a reward of $25 for the scalp of every mountain lion killed in the state, but mountain lions are scarce articles in the mountains in this county. If rewards were offered for the scalps of wildcats and coyotes, we would have a game protective measure that would be of big value to and be appreciated by the 2370 hunters of Orange County.

Why not enact a law that will allow all or a large part of the sum realized by the sale of hunter's licenses in a county to be turned over to that county as a bounty fund?

The answer from 2370 hunters is that such a law is desirable and ought to be enacted before the time arrives when there will be no game left to be protected.

TAFT AND PERKINS

It looks like ingratitude upon the part of Taft to roast George W. Perkins, former partner of J. Pierpont Morgan, especially when the Taft forces still owe Perkins $15,000 that he paid out to settle bills of the 1908 Taft campaign in New York State.

1908—George W. Perkins, partner of J. Pierpont Morgan, and director of the Harvester Trust, is one of the biggest individual contributors to the Taft campaign fund.

1909—Taft becomes President and for three years is in full possession of all the information relative to the Harvester Trust, of which George W. Perkins is a director. The trust is not prosecuted, but on the contrary, very friendly letters are interchanged between the Harvester Company and the White House.

1912—Perkins, no longer a partner of Morgan but still a director in the Harvester Trust, refuses to support Taft. The Harvester Trust is haled into Court to be dissolved.

Justice Harlan, one of the greatest men who ever sat on the United States supreme court, characterized the famous Standard Oil decision as a "crime and a fraud on the people." He wanted a real dissolution instead of a fake on which the inside stockholders made more money. President Taft, Aldrich, Cannon, Lorimer and others hailed it as a great victory.

The latest wall of the reactionaries is that they would have carried California for Taft by 100,000 if it had not been for Charles M. Hoffman, who claims to be a brother-in-law of Colonel Roosevelt, and who is at the head of the Taft fight in the state. Hoffman is the original "houn dawg"—at least in California.

Taft says the men supporting him are the patriots of the nation. Just think of Lorimer writing the Declaration of Independence; Penrose leading the troops at Valley Forge; Cannon in command at Gettysburg, and Aldrich freeing the slaves.

FOUR DAYS' FIGHT AT CHIAS PUEBLA—FEDERALS GAINING

MEXICO CITY, May 3.—Advices this afternoon state that a battle is on at Chias Puebla between 500 rebels and 2500 federals. Beginning last Wednesday, it is still raging. The federals are reported as steadily gaining, but the rebel resistance is stubborn because of the advantage in position. Many are reported as killed.

Christian Endeavor Ideals
Christian Endeavor ideals cover the entire Christian life and aim at a perfect, well balanced manhood. They are ideals of knowledge, love and service. One of the old mystics expresses this thought in a beautiful simile. The angels, he says, that stand nearest the throne of God are cherubs and seraphs. The cherubs are full of eyes which absorb and reflect the rays of the light divine, bringing knowledge of the eternal, but the flaming seraphs are full of wings, which not only move them toward God, but carry them onward in ardent, loving service.

So Christian Endeavor turns the eye of the heart Godward, toward the light that shines in darkness, and pledges the soul to unflinching devotion. Then it returns to the things of others, to acts of lowly service in the society, in the church, in the home, the workshop and the world.

The young men and women that learn through Christian Endeavor the art of private devotion, the priceless value of the Bible and the supreme blessing of a life of service are following ideals that build up manhood and womanhood, that make strong citizens in the kingdoms of this world and in the kingdom of our Lord.—Rev. R. P. Anderson.

Our Washington Letter

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Dr. L. F. Kebler, assistant chief of the Bureau of Chemistry, has handed a rude jolt to the bald headed members of the rouse committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. Dr. Kebler knows all about patent medicines, get-well-quick devices and all that sort of thing. He says 99 percent of them are frauds, and is willing to impart this fact to anyone who asks him about the matter.

The committee has been delving into a proposition to extend the pure food law so as to make more effective regulations regarding "fake" proprietary medicines. Dr. Kebler was called before the committee to give his ideas on the subject. In the course of the discussion, the subject of hair restorer came up. Representative Hamilton of Michigan, who belongs to the near-bald-headed class, immediately became interested and sought information.

"Doctor," said he, "in the interest of members of this committee who are a little short on hair, could you tell us if there is any such thing as a successful hair restorer?"

"I regret to say," solemnly replied the doctor, "I don't believe there is any such thing. At least, in all my experience I have never run across one."

Whereupon the few members of the committee who are adorned with a sufficient supply of flowing locks, had a good laugh at the expense of their shiny-pated colleagues.

Many hundreds of years ago the advocates of peace advised that swords be turned into pruning forks, but it has remained for Uncle Sam's ordinance department to hit upon the plan of using gunpowder for fertilizer.

During the war with Spain large quantities of brown gunpowder were purchased. The explosive is now of no value for military purposes and for several years the ordinance department has been trying to find some method of getting back part of the money expended in this purchase. Small quantities of powder will be submerged until it is soft enough to spread over fields and experiments will be conducted to see if it really aids in the growth of crops. If it is a success, Uncle Sam will dispose of the gunpowder to farmers at a bargain price. If it fails, the powder will be taken out to sea and dumped overboard.

Great quantities of black powder, purchased in 1898, have been used for firing salutes and as ignition charges. But the brown powder is dead stock, experts say, unless it proves a success as a fertilizer.

Representative Lewis, of Maryland, a former coal miner, who is serving his first term, is by long odds the smallest man in Congress. Whenever he addresses the House, it is necessary for him to advance in front of the Speaker's platform in order that his fellow representatives may see him. A few days ago he was asked to address a committee on the subject of government ownership of express lines, his chief hobby. Nearly all of the members of the committee were six-footers, and when the diminutive Marylander took his station at the foot of the table, the chairman said with a sly wink at his associates:

"I suggest that the gentleman from Maryland sit down during his speech, instead of standing, as is customary."

Lewis was quick to see the point. Like a flash he replied: "Well, Mr. Chairman, down in South Carolina, where you come from, I understand the men have brains from their chins down, but in Maryland, we all have our brains from our eyes up."

They did not kid Lewis about his size through the remainder of the hearing.

laws; but so far as was possible, Roosevelt backed his policy by his deeds and secured the passage of a measure dealing with accidents to the employees of interstate carriers. He won this fight against terrific opposition, then saw it attacked in the Federal courts and finally had the satisfaction of seeing his law upheld in the Supreme Court, thus establishing the authority of the principle upon which the law was based. He thereafter induced congress to pass a resolution providing for the creation of a special committee to study the whole subject, to determine the forms which Federal legislation might probably take and report a bill. That commission later reported a general project of employers' liability legislation based on the German and English system. In another year a modern and adequate set of laws on this subject will undoubtedly be included in the Federal statutes.

Theodore Roosevelt also forced the passage of an act to grant employees of the United States compensation for injuries sustained in the course of employment, and another act limiting the working hours of railroad employees.

Country Life Commission
No project launched within recent years in this country has been fraught with greater promise of good than that embraced in the appointment by Theodore Roosevelt of what was known as the Country Life Commission, the purpose of which was to investigate fully the conditions of rural life in their bearing upon the general tendencies of social and industrial well-being, and to devise a plan for the improvement of the same. Mr. Roosevelt saw the close association between the city-ward trend of population and the upward trend of the cost of living. He realized the need of keeping a proper balance of population between the city and country. He observed that in most of the states of the Union the conditions of country life, especially as pertained to women and youths, were extremely unsatisfactory. He knew that farm women were overworked and in many cases under-sheltered; that boys and girls were turning toward the cities for relief from a rural environment which, to say the least, was deplorable. He saw that the status of farm life needed elevating.

So, as a magazine writer phrases it, "Before the rest of us had yet reached this conception," Mr. Roosevelt developed the idea of the Country Life Commission and set it to work on these big and important problems. The members of the commission, persons of extreme prominence and ability, served without pay and paid their individual expenses. Congress allowed a small appropriation for clerk hire, stationery, etc. The commission made splendid progress and rendered a partial report, although the work was only in its beginning. Great results were anticipated. Then Roosevelt's term ended and Mr. Taft became president. Mr. Taft manifested no interest whatever in this humane and laudable undertaking on behalf of the women and youths. The commission received no support or encouragement whatever from him. He gave it a cold shoulder, just as he had many of the other Roosevelt policies and plans. Congress, taking its cue from him, declined to appropriate even the insignificant sum needed for the most ordinary office expense. The result was, that the work stopped. Mr. Taft's treatment of the Country Life Commission will forever stand to his discredit.

Boiled Fruit Cake

One cupful of water, one cupful of sugar, ½ cupful of lard (I use a little butter, too), 1 teaspoonful of cinnamon, 1 teaspoonful of cloves; 1 cup seeded raisins, 1 cup currants, ½ cup citron (or as much as desired), ¼ teaspoonful of salt. Put all ingredients on the stove in an enamel pan; let them boil up for two or three minutes, then set aside to cool. HAPPY AFTERNOON

Informal Affair Given by Miss Reinhaus in Honor of the O. E. S. Committee

A delightful informal affair was that given yesterday afternoon by Miss Reinhaus, assisted by her sister, Miss Pauline Reinhaus. The afternoon party was given in honor of the committee serving with Miss Reinhaus during the last two months in Hermon Chapter, O. E. S.

Lilies and sweet peas, telling in their tender fragrance that spring was indeed here, adorned the parlors and the dining room. May Day decorations, were equally suggestive of the year's most beautiful season. Pink roses were used abundantly.

Contests that were amusing lent wings to hours. Miss Ava Wells won honors in the drawing contest and was given a dainty cut glass dish. The consolation prize, a box of chocolate bonbons, went to Miss Mary Cotter. In a guessing contest, Mrs. Frank True used her clever wits to advantage and won a pretty hand-painted china teacup for best list. Another box of delicious chocolates went to Mrs. Glidden for consolation.

In the charmingly decorated dining room, was served a delectable luncheon after the merry contests closed and prizes had been awarded.

West End Thimble Club
Twenty-two ladies were present yesterday at the meeting of the West End Thimble Club, which was entertained at the beautiful North Broadway home of Mrs. John Bruns. Pink and white roses, the crown of the lovely month of May were used in profusion throughout the house.

The ladies had dainty embroidery pieces with them and as they plied their shining needles, they were entertained with some delightful selections on the piano and a clever magazine reading given by Mrs. Bruns.

Later the hostess served a delicious three course collation on long tables, being assisted by Mrs. Foster of Santa Clara avenue and Mrs. L. A. West. Cheerful chat was the sauce that rendered the well prepared viands still more appetizing.

The next meeting of this club will be held with Mrs. Allen McCowen, 104 East Santa Clara avenue.

Woman's Givies Club
This club will hold its regular meeting on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. in the city hall. Following out its plan of hearing all sides, the candidacy of Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt will be presented by two of our prominent local men.

As this is the last meeting before the primaries, the women are urged to show their interest in the choice of the next president by attending in large numbers.

Dance Tonight
The Fraternity Brotherhood will give the regular dance with which this lounge entertains its friends each month. All are invited to attend, and an assurance of a good time is given.

If you have not obtained your ticket for the Conservatory recital you had better do so at once.

Next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp we shall demonstrate, in Elks' Hall, some of the work of our various departments. We want you and your musical friends there. Tickets 25 cents each. 504 1/2 N. Main St. Main 214.

SOME COMING EVENTS

Next Week's Social Calendar Promises Santa Anans a "Sheaf of Pleasure"

Next week will be one of more or less gaiety with luncheons, whist parties, operas and recitals. On Monday evening Alan A. Revill, assisted by Miss Dorothy Mead on the pipe organ and Maurice Phillips in vocal numbers, will give a pipe organ recital which is looked forward to pleasurably.

Miss Mary Cotter will be hostess at a one o'clock luncheon on Monday in the Dragon balcony, her guests to be the ladies of Travelers' Club, Number One.

On Tuesday evening, May 7, the teachers of Orange County Conservatory of Music will present their pupils in recital.

Mrs. I. W. Van Cleave will be hostess on Tuesday with a one o'clock luncheon.

On Wednesday evening, society will turn out in force at the Grand to hear the alluring songs and see the witching dances of "The Spring Maid," in which Misses Hajos, the charming, diminutive Hungarian prima donna of musical comedy is said to lead her audiences into the land of enchantment, so captivating is the winsome singer.

On Thursday are whist parties given by Mrs. Lina L. Shaw and Mesdames Ey and Diers, both of which are pleasantly anticipated.

On Saturday one of the most out of the ordinary social happenings will occur, when Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Wiffle, who have recently completed an artistic log-trim cabin on their 50-acre lemon property near Tustin, will entertain their friends with a housewarming for which the following unique invitations have been sent out: On the side of the hill where the lemon trees grow,

Stands a neat little cabin, where we wish to go
On May the Eleventh, before the sun goes down,
To this neat little cabin, trimmed in brown.

The trim is of trees that at the wayside grew
By an orchard in Tustin, on Prospect avenue.

Many years were they growing, these cypress trees
That cling to the cabin that faces the breeze.

In many automobiles, at half past four,
Past the blossoms so pink, right up to the door,
We'll take one and all to the Lemon Tree Hill,
To dance in the cabin of Trinidad Burrell.

We will break our fast as the sun goes down,
Within the barn near this cabin, trimmed brown,
On frijoles, tamales, ice cream and cake;
A right jolly time of this party we'll make.

We'll dance to music of banjo and guitar,
On the polished floor of this cabin so far.
We'll dance and we'll play games before we go home,
And trust that our hosts are never more to roam.

At the home of the Waffles, Seventh and Bush,
We'll gather to start on this memorable rush.
So let us all be prompt, not later than four,
To the Lemon Tree Hills you've not seen before.

You must answer with pleasure, answer in rhyme,
If you are to go on this memorable time.
For we must count noses, and toes and such,
Else 'twill not be possible to perfect our rush.

Leave your call with Big Ben, he'll call you on the dot at any time you say.
And if you roll over and try "just-one-more-nap," repeat his call 30 seconds later and keep on calling until you're wide awake.
Big Ben stands 7 inches tall—He's heavy, massive, handsome. He's got a great, big dial you can easily read in the dim morning light, a sunny deep toned voice you'll hear distinctly on your sleepiest mornings.

High School Athletic Notes
The Santa Ana boys have an unbroken string of victories toward the county baseball championship. Fullerton went down 10 to 1, Orange 6 to 4, and on Wednesday last, Huntington Beach was put out of the running in a score of 20 to 3. Anaheim has not been met to date, but will be played next Wednesday at the Lincoln Park grounds.

The schedule provides for a three game series between the teams with first and second standings. It looks as though these would be Santa Ana and Fullerton. The champions of the county will meet other league champions in the semi-finals and finals for the Southern California championship. Last year Santa Ana High came through to the end, unbeaten. The playing of the local boys has greatly improved over the early games, especially in batting. Pete Duhart leads the bunch with .667; Youngman follows with .500; McGaffey .437; Barker .364; Carver .357; Morrison .333; the other members are below these high showings, but some are close to the 300 mark. These averages are for the last seven games. There has been no practice since Wednesday so as to give the boys time to get together some pep. Next week training for the county finals will begin.

The game scheduled with Los Angeles High for tomorrow was called off by the Los Angeles manager.

Trusting
I recently met two young lady missionaries 1600 miles from home in one of our island possessions. Scarcely a handful of people speak their native tongue. The work they do must show slow returns. They have few to counsel with and fewer to speak an encouraging word. Yet I found them sunny, optimistic and in love with their work. They were Christian Endeavor trained, and they have well learned the lesson of the pledge, "Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength."—John R. Clements.

Christian Endeavor Is Missionary
To have a live interest in missions is the ideal of one Christian Endeavor society, which makes its power felt in the church by its gifts to missions. This society goes to the mission fields through its gift, and it grows at home in numbers and strength. A living society is a giving society.—Sarah N. McCreery.

OLD GLORY AT ENCAMPMENT

Department G.A.R. Convention at Stockton Alive, With Real Patriotism

(Communicated.)
A very delightful report of the convention at Stockton was given by Mrs. Ella Wilson at G.A.R. Hall yesterday, which I will report briefly. The delegates were met at the depot at Stockton on Monday morning, and escorted to headquarters by the band, two blocks from the Methodist church, where all meetings were held. The city and church was most beautifully decorated, breathing the spirit of "Welcome" everywhere. "Old Glory" filling every conceivable place. A free ride to Linden and a stop in front of the school house, where the children and citizens had gathered to sing and wave "Old Glory" was something long to be remembered.

The principal speaker of the evening meeting was Judge A. J. Buckler of Suisun, speaking on the subject: "Retrospect and Future of the Grand Army of the Republic." He stated that since the organization of the G. A. R. no soldier, or soldier's widow, or soldier's child was found wanting without the G.A.R. helping them in all ways. C. L. Newmiller paid a glowing tribute to the W.R.C., welcoming them to the city. Thursday evening was G.A.R. night at the Garlick Theater, with program suitable for the occasion. The stage setting represented an army camp suitably decorated with flags and campfires, and the different bugle calls were given by Mr. Morgan of the Marine Band of Washington, D. C. The same drums that thrilled the "Boys in Blue" at Shiloh on that memorable Sunday morning on April 6, 1862, was heard on that night. Thursday evening was G.A.R. night at the Garlick Theater, with program suitable for the occasion. The stage setting represented an army camp suitably decorated with flags and campfires, and the different bugle calls were given by Mr. Morgan of the Marine Band of Washington, D. C. The same drums that thrilled the "Boys in Blue" at Shiloh on that memorable Sunday morning on April 6, 1862, was heard on that night.

The G.A.R. ladies and others of the convention visited Sacramento, where they formed a procession in the rear of the capitol grounds and marched to Memorial Grove, headed by Major C. E. Townsend and Mrs. Townsend, the latter beating the big bass drum, playing "Marching Through Georgia."

The Stockton Boy Scouts held a busy place on the program, doing all in their power to help the old veterans in many ways. They also took part in the parade, showing their training by their scout-masters. A nice little sum was raised by the different orders to buy them a silk flag.

And now when the last veteran of the rapidly thinning ranks of the Grand Army of the Republic shall have answered "taps" and shall have been mustered into the army of eternity, the little bronze button now so proudly displayed on the lapel of every veteran, will continue on and on until the end of time, ever perpetuating the memory of the boys of '61 and their deeds of valor and devotion to the flag, by their children and grand children being allowed to wear the same.

"Here's to the G. A. R.,
The grand old Boys in Blue,
The saviors of a nation—
Brave heroes, tried and true.

Long, oh, long, may they live
"Neath the flag that they adore.
Then, may they meet in heaven
The rebels who went before."

LOOKS BETTER THAN THOUGHT

County Surveyor McBride is Pleased With Outlook in Sevierville Canyon

The brush-cutting gang is making good progress clearing the roadway for the proposed road up Sevierville canyon. County Surveyor McBride expects to go to the canyon again next Tuesday, and will then continue his lines up the gorge, to the lower end of which he has already set stakes.

The surveyor is pleased with the fact that the cutting away of the brush reveals less of difficulty in getting the roadway into shape than had been supposed on first examination. For a mile above Sevierville canyon the road will follow the old trail on the side of the hill. The rest of the way it will follow the bottom of the canyon.

IT'S A COMMON MISTAKE Among men to think that All Tailored-Suits Are Expensive

There are lots of men that go through life laboring under the mistaken idea that an INEXPENSIVE, well tailored suit to order, made by a reliable tailor, is not to be had. They continue to wear the ill-fitting, poorly made products of the "sweat shop" in the belief that they can't afford a suit made to their measure. They're mistaken.

WE MAKE GOOD SUITS To Order at $25.00 Upward

The clothes we make are built in an ideal shop of good serviceable fabrics, by trained tailors who know how a suit should be made. The finish, the fit the fabrics and the findings in every Lutz & Co. suit must be good. If we used the quality of materials and workmanship that goes into ready made clothing, we would soon have to go out of business.

WE CAN'T AFFORD TO SLIGHT OUR CLOTHES IN ANY RESPECT.
Lutz & Co. suits are built to last, to fit, to look well until worn out, and best of all the materials are carefully selected by men who are judges of cloth. No shoddy goods ever enters this shop.

LOCALS AGAIN THE WINNERS

Santa Ana High School Defeated Huntington Beach 20 to 3

(By VERN SMITH)

At the game with Huntington Beach on the latter's diamond, the Red and White baseball squad of the Santa Ana High School was again victorious, winning the game easily, by a score of 20 to 3.

Carver, a hard batter, knocked a three-bagger, sending the ball out over left field. Duhart, who has been showing up good on short stop, slugged the ball out over center field for a three-base hit.

"Spud" Morrison, the Red and White's crack center fielder, got a pretty two-base hit over right field. As a whole, the Santa Ana team did some pretty nifty slugging.

"Bill" Warren, pitcher for the Red and White, was right there in the twirling game also, holding Huntington Beach down to three hits. Warren is fast improving and it is hoped the Red and White will win the county championship.

From the start until the finish the game was simply a walk-away for the Santa Ana boys. Huntington Beach has a fair team but they are not there when they run up against Coach Ratcliffe's fast players.

This Auburn 30 at this price is the biggest value ever put out by any manufacturer.

Run this Auburn Thirty alongside of any car at about the same price. Look the two over, see how much bigger, better and stronger the Auburn looks. See how much heavier the construction is, notice our superior motor with its cylinders cast separately and five bearing crank shaft, and compare the finish and lines. See if it does not seem more practical to spend $1200 for a car of this kind than it would be to spend much more for a car not so good. Ask any Auburn owner of the merits of Auburn automobiles.

LA FOLLETTE TALK TONIGHT

Smythe of San Diego Following
Up Johnson, to be at the Grand Opera House

Following the policy of following Governor Johnson, the La Follette leaders in this end of the state have arranged for a La Follette speaker to be here tonight. He is William E. Smythe of San Diego, who ten years ago was a candidate for congress on the Democratic ticket. Smythe spoke here about two weeks ago. He is an able speaker, and leads the La Follette ticket in this state. La Follette will be here later in the campaign.

The meeting tonight will be held at the Grand Opera House. According to the announcement made by Dr. Doyle, president of the local La Follette club, Smythe will speak on the following topics: "Things Gov. Johnson Omitted to Say," "Why You Should Vote for Senator La Follette," "The Source of Roosevelt's Campaign Fund," "Perkins and His Job in Politics," "What the Trusts are Trying to do to You," "Reasons for Betrayal of La Follette" and "The Chances of Three Candidates at Chicago Convention."

COLONEL ROOSEVELT MAY WIN IN OHIO

Indications Are That He Will Carry Taft's Own State.

Cleveland, O.—In the present contest for the nomination for president the indications are that in Ohio, President Taft's own state, Colonel Roosevelt will receive forty-four out of forty-six delegates to the national convention. This will be a bitter pill for Mr. Taft's managers to swallow.

The progressive movement has not only stirred the voters of Ohio, but of the whole country—the plain people—to assert their rights of enfranchisement as guaranteed them under the constitution, and the wholesale breaking away from the rule of the bosses in this state and elsewhere is like a tidal wave sweeping over the land.

Never in the political history of this country have the voters given so much thought to the right of the people to rule as is manifested in this campaign, and when the Ohio state convention taken place on May 21 the policies of Colonel Roosevelt will be endorsed by the voters in no uncertain language.

NEW JERSEY JOINS THE MOVEMENT TO STOP BOSSES.

Indications That Roosevelt Will Secure
Every One of the Delegates.

Trenton, N. J.—Interest in the campaign for the Republican nominee for president is growing hotter and hotter in this state as the day for the New Jersey state convention, May 28, approaches, and the indications are that Colonel Roosevelt will secure the whole number of state delegates, twenty-four, to the national convention. "The right of the people" to rule and the desire to break away from the "rule of the bosses" are just as strong in this state as in any throughout the country, and as Illinois, Pennsylvania, Maine, Nebraska, Oregon and other states have set the example of endorsing the progressive movement as enunciated by Colonel Roosevelt, showing that this is a country "of the people, for the people and by the people."

MARYLAND TO BE IN LINE.

A Solid Roosevelt Delegation Expected
From State Convention.

Baltimore, Md.—The Maryland Republican state convention will be held on May 6, and the interest in the outcome of the contest to secure the Republican nomination for president is becoming more intense each day.

Colonel Roosevelt's candidacy and the principles for which he stands have caused such an upheaval in the political history of this state and the country at large as has never been known before in the history of the country, and Maryland will be in line with the other great states which have emphatically gone on record as endorsing the progressive, and it is predicted that a solid Roosevelt delegation will go to the national Republican convention at Chicago to register in no uncertain manner its choice of Theodore Roosevelt for president.

CALIFORNIA'S ROSY FUTURE

Railroad Man Declares State is Mecca of Homeseeker Who Are Cream of Country

"California has become the mecca of the homeseeker, and although thousands have come here and have turned their hands to making the land productive, there is still room for many thousands more and I predict that within the next ten years California will show an increase in population unparalleled in the history of any state in the Union."

Such was the recent declaration in the Los Angeles Examiner by Chas. S. Fee, traffic manager of the Southern Pacific railroad, while visiting Los Angeles.

"The Imperial, San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys, perhaps the three greatest productive regions in the western hemisphere, have not reached the height of productiveness and there is still room for 10,000,000 persons in these lands. .. has been only recently that the Eastern farmer has awakened to the great possibilities of California agriculture and the present colonization rush is but a forerunner of what will come in the next few years."

The fame of Los Angeles as a wonder city with marvelous possibilities and the great chances for success in the rich farm lands surrounding had done much to bring thousands of colonists to the coast. These homeseekers, he declared, are the cream of the middle and northwest citizens who had made a success of life in the East but are seeking greater success in California and all of them, with a few exceptions, he said, are financially equipped to launch new ventures here.

Mr. Fee said: "At the present moment we are making preparations for one of the greatest passenger rushes in the history of railroading. Very soon I can state that for passenger carrying the year has been a record breaker, but at present I can only say that the year has been a very successful one."

Mr. Fee stated that the petty rivalry between Pacific coast states no longer existed and that now the interests of each were intertwined into one great get-together-and-boast movement. One of the greatest factors in bringing this about was a convention held about a month ago in San Francisco in which representatives of city carnival associations met and agreed to have celebrations in coast cities on the same date.

STRANGE DOG MAY HAVE HAD RABIES

Olinda Derrick: C. W. Murphy, superintendent with the Anaheim Union Water Company, killed a stray dog in the back yard at his home last Saturday night. The animal is believed to have been mad. Mr. Murphy was awakened in the night by a noise in the yard and going to the rear of his house he found the dog frantically tearing about the yard, apparently in a state of much viciousness. He secured his shotgun and disposed of the animal. Subsequent examination carried out the belief that it suffered from hydrophobia. Mr. Murphy's prompt action has won much praise. It is not known where the dog came from or whether it bit other animals before being killed. In consequence of which a sharp watch is being kept on the canine population.

OIL MAN HAS BONES BROKEN

Automobile Turned Turtle and Driver Was Pinned Beneath;
Dog Does Best

WHITTIER, May 3.—With his right arm and one rib broken, J. R. MacAllister, superintendent of the Standard Oil Company in this and the Fullerton district, lies at the Whittier Hospital badly injured as the result of an automobile accident which occurred near the Girls' State School on the Los Angeles county good roads at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. MacAllister was driving the big Franklin "Six" loaned to him by Dudley Harvey-Elder, and was going at a high rate of speed when the machine ran into a ditch and turned turtle, the steering wheel pinning the driver under the machine until help arrived from a neighboring ranch-house.

With the exception of his two dogs, MacAllister was the only occupant of the big machine. The damage to the car is considerable, as the front axle and springs were broken, the tonneau buckled and the motor badly injured. The tracks made by the car showed that all four wheels went into the ditch, and that the machine did not turn over until the driver attempted to pull out on the opposite side of the road.

J. R. Adams, in front of whose house the accident occurred, was the first to reach the machine and found MacAllister's bulldog making a desperate effort to dig his master out. Adams summoned help and succeeded in lifting the wreck so that the injured man could crawl out.

Revival Services

Spurgeon Memorial M. E. Church South.
Rev. J. A. Stevenson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach the sermon tonight and a very helpful service is anticipated. You are cordially invited to come and worship with us.

The sermon by Rev. George Husser last evening was certainly to the point. The speaker called attention, first, to conditions which give evidence of the need of a revival; second, he declared to us in no uncertain terms from whence a revival comes and how to obtain it; third, he then closed by setting before us the beautiful fruit of a revival.

Every sermon delivered during the week has been of high order and you who have missed them are losers. Don't fail to attend the meetings whenever possible, for you will not only be profited but you will help someone else.

A. F. STEM, Pastor.

Kickball

This game is much liked by young players, and even college girls enjoy it as a change. The players form in two solid lines facing each other and sitting on the floor about four feet apart. Two players, the captains, stand at opposite ends of the path formed by the lines. A basketball is rolled by one of them on the floor between the lines, and the players sitting on the floor try to kick the ball over the heads of the opposite line. They must keep their hands on the floor and use their feet only.

When the ball is kicked over a point is counted for the team making the kick. The other captain then takes the ball and rolls it from his end. The game continues until one team makes the number of points previously agreed on.

Matter of Perseverance
Bishop Burgess of Long Island, speaking of his crusade against Sunday flying, said: "I am against the formation of bad habits, whether they be habits of laziness, or selfishness, or of Sunday flying. 'Be sure' we are told—'be sure your sin will find you out.' That is true, but it is also true that, when your sin pays for you a second, third and fourth call, it generally finds you in."

TUSTIN'S NATIONAL BANK
HAS RECEIVED EXCELLENT
SUPPORT FROM BEGINNING

The growth of the business section of Tustin and the amount of business done in the stores which have been located there made it necessary to have a national bank to properly accommodate the business interests of not only the merchants but also the farmers and ranchers of this rich section.

The First National Bank of Tustin was organized during this last winter, and the capital stock of $25,000 was quickly subscribed for by the residents, there being about fifty stockholders.

The bank opened its doors on the 15th of February in the old bank building which had been built during the boom days. With the necessary alterations completed, the latest, up-to-date equipment put in, the bank quickly received great support both in the way of deposits and loans. Of these several good ones have already been made, and there is practically no limit to the accommodation this bank can offer.

The deposits, up to date, are $52,900.

For president, the stockholders have elected Will C. Crawford, a veteran orange grower of this section. For cashier, the bank has been exceedingly fortunate in securing Mr. E. J. Cranston, recently from Maple Plain, Minn. Mr. Cranston has been president of two banks in that part of the country, one at Maple Plain, Minn., and the other at Loreto, Minn., and is still president of the latter.

Mr. Cranston and his family are now living at Tustin. He is the brother of Prof. J. A. Cranston, principal of the Santa Ana city schools. The following letter from a former bank inspector of the state of Minnesota, speaks very highly of Mr. Cranston:

"To Whom It May Concern: 'This is to certify that I have known Mr. E. J. Cranston, who was formerly president of the State Bank of Maple Plain, Minn. During the time I was superintendent of banks for the state of Minnesota, I had good opportunity to come in contact with Mr. Cranston, and more particularly to become acquainted with his work as a banker. 'I can cheerfully say that I consider Mr. Cranston one of the best and cleanest bankers of our state. I am sorry to know that Mr. Cranston is thinking of leaving our state, and going West; at the same time I can say that any bank will be fortunate to secure the services of Mr. Cranston.'"

Among other improvements and additions to the business section of Tustin is the Tustin Manufacturing Co., which, in addition to its former business of manufacturing "goose-necks" and "cyclones," have installed a complete line of farming implements for the orchards, beet or bean land. They should be commended by the citizens of Tustin as far as it is possible for them to do so in turning their business their way.

The lumber yard and planing mill established by E. S. Tingley have been greatly appreciated by local residents, and he has had very satis-

STEADY GROWTH
AND PROGRESS
NOTEDMany New Houses and Places of Business Mark Advancement of Tustin

The beautiful little city of Tustin surrounded on all sides by orange groves which yearly bring in small fortunes to their owners, has been enjoying a steady and substantial growth for the last two years. Many beautiful new homes have been added in that time, and at the same time, the orchards have also received more care. Tustin is becoming more and more a show place for visitors coming to Santa Ana. Those who come down on the long, tire-some Pacific Electric can hardly realize there is such a little paradise at this end, when they are driven through the shady streets, and well-kept orange, walnut and lemon orchards.

Most of the new houses built in the last two years have been put up by old timers, who, having gotten their orchards in first class shape, are now turning their attention to their personal comfort, in the way of building. Only one section perhaps deserves much mention as having recently settled up, and that is the Lemon Heights section. This, however, will be written about by itself.

as it has been so wonderful and is so beautiful that it is necessary to give it a full write up at one time. The other land, however, has long been cultivated and is considered gilt-edge, especially when the matter of interest earned is concerned. The beauty of it for a home, is something else again.

After some trouble in collecting data on the amount of building done in Tustin during the last two years, the following list has been secured, and the values given are approximate, and if anything a little under the real cost. From the class of homes built one can see that the ranches are paying very well. From this list one can see that at least there have been twenty-two homes built at a cost of $53,900, or at an average of $2450 per home, which is rather a good showing:

W. H. Truran, the well digger, $1500.

A. E. Hoefler, built on Newport Road, $2400.

C. A. Broomell, who formerly owned the Sauers place, and sold out to go to Arizona, but returned without even unloading his furniture. Built near riot & Warren, $1500.

C. E. Bowman, fumigator, $3000.

Mr. Marcey, the Chicago lumberman, who built two houses at the north end of Newport Road, $3500.

John Barker, rancher, who built on Newport Road near Aliso station, $1000.

John McFadden, rancher, who built on First street for his bride, $2500.

H. M. Ader, a Whitmer man, who bought five acres of the Smith place on Mitchell and Red Hill, temporary home, $600.

Harry Lewis, whom we all know, $3000.

Charles Moore, a temporary home on Prospect avenue, $400.

E. R. Mauser, the San Francisco wholesale shoe dealer, temporary home, $200.

Sam Williamson, the pioneer bean grower, $2500.

Frank Griest, recently married, $1500.

J. C. Gray, from Northern California, built on Laguna avenue, $1300.

Claude Martin, $600.

C. D. Brown, from Waterloo, Iowa, $1100.

M. H. Shield, of the same place. Both have bought places on Irvine boulevard and are now improving. $2300.

Geo. Brown, end of Red Hill, $1100.

Chas. Blackmore, Seventeenth street, $2500.

Mrs. Geo. Pickering, who recently sold to Dr. H. H. Forline, $1500.

Johnny Haywood, who built just south of the store, and now occupied by E. J. Cranston, cashier of the First National Bank of Tustin, $1500.

Mr. Freeman of Winfield, Iowa, who bought five acres of apricots from Harry Lewis without having seen it, and solely on recommendation. He is very well pleased with his purchase, too, $3500.

T. Bushman, Prospect avenue, $2800.

Dr. Waffle, small home on her ranch on Newport Road, $900.

James Warner, from Portland, Ore., who lost his former home by fire, $1400.

Charles Sauers, son of John Sauers, who has bought and built at the corner of Red Hill avenue and Newport Road, $2500.

Charlie Currie, $1400.

W. D. Bowman, $2000.

A. Havens, seed man from Northern California, $900.

Roy I. Smith, $1750.

Sherman Stevens, $1100.

N. O. Winchell and wife, of Long Island, Phillips county, Kansas, have just arrived in Tustin and are visiting the C. C. Cosads on First street. Mr. and Mrs. Winchell expect to settle here, but as yet haven't bought anything.

Edgar Crane, of Aurora, Ill., who is spending the winter in Long Beach, came over to make a short visit with Charles Albee and wife.

A number of Tustin people spent May Day in Santiago Canyon. Among them were F. O. Stearns and family, Eddie Cope, Mrs. Fred Morehead, Charley Clifford and wife, Carl Riggin.

Miss Mildred Pearce of Denver, Colo., is visiting Miss Esther Gowdy on Main street. Her folks have been visiting in Southern California, and Miss Pearce likes Tustin best of all.

F. E. Kennedy of Denver, has also been visiting for a few days at the Gowdy home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wright, from Belvedere, Neb., have moved into the house at the corner of Second and B streets.

Mrs. Joe Skinner was the guest of Mrs. E. H. Smith at a May Day dinner.

Packing Houses Association finished up their run for the season Monday, of navel, Mediter-ranians and St. Michaels. Although the crop in Southern California is short, owing to the frost, the Tustin Hills Association packed more this year than they did last year. The prices obtained, too, have been very good. The blossoms now out on the trees make the prospects for a heavy crop next year very good. The trees seem to be in fine shape.

SIXTY PER-CENT INCREASE IN BUILDING

Permits For First Four Months of 1912 Total Quarter of a Million

LEAVE NEIGHBORING CITY FAR BEHIND

New Residences and Business
Projects Keep Building
Trades Hustling

Building permits in Santa Ana for the first four months of 1912 show an increase of sixty per cent over the same period for 1911. The total for the present year up to April 30, was $349,132, against $148,627 for last year. And the spring of 1911 was considered at that time an exceptionally busy period.

Should the rate of increase shown by the first third of the year be kept up, and there is no reason to expect otherwise, the total building operations for the year would go above $550,000. The increase is more remarkable from the fact that during the year there have been very few permits of large size, the bulk of the expenditure being for moderate priced residences.

To show the rapid and substantial growth of Santa Ana it is interesting to compare the figures here with those of Pomona, a city which claims, and doubtless has, a somewhat larger population than Santa Ana. A dispatch from the former city tells that permits for the first four months of the year totaled $216,000, and this is considered a remarkable record. It will be noted, however, that the total is $34,000 less than that of Santa Ana.

Permits for the month of April totaled $63,555, against $44,450 for the same month last year, an increase of 70 per cent. For the past week the permits issued call for expenditures of $14,633, showing that the average since the first of the year is being kept up. Seven residences and two business houses are included in the list.

There seems no indication of a drop in the rate of construction of residences, and there is every indication that the average of valuation is going higher. The bungalow type continues to preponderate largely, but these buildings as a rule are of both substantial and ornamental construction. A trip through the residence districts of the city will convince the most casual observer that architectural standards have risen materially in the last year or two.

The block on Ross street, north of Hickey, will be greatly improved by two modern bungalows for which contracts were let this week. H. H. Hoss-ler has the contract to build a six-room bungalow for D. N. Kelly, at a cost of $2000, and H. A. Skiles will erect a six-room bungalow for J. S. Pearson, to cost $2500.

New Business Buildings

Several new projects are under way in the line of business buildings. Mrs. Elizabeth Donaldson has men at work on the construction of a frame store building, at South Main and Fairview avenue, to cost $1250. It is not known for what the building will be used. John Avas has a force at work tearing away the debris on his lots east of the Richelleu Hotel, on which a brick business block is to be erected at once. Chas. Remsburg this week took out a permit for a second story on his business block at Fifth and Bush, on which work is now in progress.

F. E. Keiser has just completed another handsome and modern apartment building at the corner of Birch and Camille streets. It contains four apartments of four rooms each and is equipped with every necessary convenience. In spite of the number of apartment houses which have been erected during the past year it is stated that the demand for apartments exceeds the supply.

Work has practically been completed on the new edifice of the United Presbyterian church, at Sixth and Bush streets, and it now shows up as one of the handsomest structures of the kind in the city. Good progress is being made on the extensive improvements to the First Methodist church, which will cost about $10,000.

MUCH BUILDING AT NEWPORT BEACH

New Structures Going Up, and Demand For Vacant Lots is Increasing

Newport News: Newport Beach seems to be enjoying an era of prosperity at the present time, evidence of which can be seen on every hand from the brisk demand for vacant property and the great amount of building being done.

The big Schnitzer block next to the Parker block, covering two lots is the most substantial thing being built although J. M. Atkins of Santa Ana will shortly begin the erection of another brick block on the property he recently bought from C. E. French on the ocean front.

A. K. Douglas has recently built a bungalow on lot 137 in block A, at East Newport adjoining Lew Wallace's house.

E. E. L. Quin is putting the finishing touches on a finely planned $1200 house in the same block.

Wm. Goodcell has recently put up a small house for his own use at East Newport and S. R. Jumper built an addition to the Ingersoll house occupied by R. P. Wilson.

C. H. L. Griest has purchased and remodeled the bath house at West Newport and has made a fine residence out of it.

Eugene Field has just completed a residence for E. Jeanette Shafer in the Lake tract and is now working on a $700 house for Electa Putnam in the same tract.

The finishing touches of interior work are being put to the pressed brick building of the State Bank of Newport by Wm. Goodcell. The building is being finished inside with Spanish cedar which will look as well as mahogany.

Butler Bros. have the contract for a $2500 residence for Flora Howes in block 17, Balboa, as well as for a residence for J. P. Greeley in block 3 of the same tract to cost $1650.

H. L. Billings has constructed a $200 addition to his home and C. H. Way one that cost $100.

The big Collins' block on Palm street, Balboa, is nearing completion and makes a great change for the better in the appearance of that part of the city.

E. L. Stroup is having James O'Brien build him a $900 residence in block 251, while E. M. Hoag has let the contract to A. M. Anderson for a $700 residence in block C, Balboa.

H. B. Miller will shortly begin the erection of a fine house on Island avenue, East Newport and J. B. Aarand, proprietor of the Casa Loma hotel at Redlands, will have an addition built to his bungalow in the same part of the city.

D. R. Dobson, a sub-contractor of Butler Bros. is putting the finishing touches to a $2000 house for Mrs. Chas. Edison Farwell on the bay front at Balboa and G. B. Kennard has had Eckels & Son of Santa Ana build him a cosy bungalow on 23rd street to replace the one destroyed by the big fire.

Prospects are that a number of other new buildings will be started before the summer season sets in as the building spirit seems to have inoculated the property owners from one end of the sand spit to the other.

BUILDING PERMITS

Orange News: For the month of April building permits took a decided slump and the showing was far below the average. Only three permits were issued during the month, for a total of $3600, the lowest amount in many months. They are as follows: E. A. Beachmer, dwelling, $1000; C. F. Newton, dwelling, $2000; J. H. Wilke, dwelling, $1600.

Total $3600

NEW OFFICE BUILDING

Olinda Derrick: Foundations are now down and the superstructure about to start on the new office building of the Santa Fe at the top of the hill. Probably another month will see the new building ready for use.

Got Away With Many Nickels
With his pockets stuffed with nickels, a man was arrested in Mount Vernon, N. Y., a few days ago, charged with vagrancy. Puzzeled at the jingling sounds issuing from his garments, the police searched his clothes, finding, to their amazement, that 800 nickels were stowed about his person. The prisoner then confessed that he had tapped a nickel-in-the-slot machine and made away with $40.

"Drove" a Bargain
The city man had turned his horse out to pasture two years ago or more and as he had not been in funds he had not paid the farmer a cent during that time.

Not long ago the farmer's patience was exhausted and he informed the city man that he proposed selling the animal to pay for its keep. "You owe me more than the horse is worth now," said the farmer. The city man considered for a minute. Then his face lighted up. "I'll tell you what I'll do," he said. "You keep the horse two months longer and you can have him."

The city man thought he had driven a hard bargain.—Milwaukee Free Press.

PAID $11,000 FOR
WALNUT ORCHARD

Orange News: Sherman Foster and Henry Schaffert drove by automobile to Pomona yesterday to close up a deal in which Mr. Foster becomes owner of a fine nine-acre walnut grove on East Santa Clara avenue, which belonged to a Pomona man, F. D. Smith. The deal was put through satisfactorily, and the ranch changes hands for a consideration of $11,000, a very handsome figure.

Mr. Perry V. Grout has purchased through the agency of the H. Schaffert Realty Company the five-acre orange grove on East Santa Clara avenue, belonging to F. D. Smith of Pomona. The deal was closed Saturday. The ranch is set to Valencia and navel, and sold for $8250.

No Freedom for Him

It was his first visit to this country, and he was anxious to see as much of it as possible in a short time. In a brief visit to the south he met an aged negro who had been a slave. "How interesting," he remarked. "And after the war you had your freedom?" The old man looked at him half sadly, half sheepishly, shook his woolly head and said: "No, sa. Ah, didn't git no freedom—Ah done was married."

SALT RIVER VALLEY

Marinette lands are the best adapted to Early Navel Oranges, Early Seedless Grape Fruits, Olives and Apricots in the Salt River Valley. It has special advantages of location: air drainage, railway facilities, etc., not shared by any other citrus section of the valley.

Early Navel Oranges at Marinette will pay regularly from $400 to $600 per acre. They are ready to ship by Christmas. The quality is far ahead of any other "Early Navels," sweeter, meatier and better colored.

Seedless Grapefruits have paid near Marinette $100 per acre from 3-year-old trees. Full grown trees will pay $700 to $1000 per acre. Both oranges and grapefruits are free from insects, scales and diseases. No spraying, no fumigating.

Apricots at Marinette ripen three weeks ahead of California and trees begin paying good profits at three years old.

Alfalfa in the Salt River Valley, with the abundance of water furnished by the Roosevelt Dam, can't be beat in any section of the country, in fact it must be seen to be appreciated.

Unless You take this trip, you will never realize what a wonderful lot of opportunities there are in this valley.

The Cost of the trip, including round-trip ticket from Los Angeles, berths, automobiles and meals while in the valley, is only $20, and this counts as cash on your purchase when you buy.

RALPH MODJESKI IS TO DRAW THE PLANS

Bridge Across Columbia River is to be in Hands of Chicago Engineer

PORTLAND, May 2.—The Portland and Vancouver clubs, through a committee representing both organizations, have selected Ralph Modjeski of Chicago, son of Madame Modjeska, to prepare permanent plans and estimates for the bridge which is to cross the Columbia river, thus connecting Portland, Oregon, with Vancouver, Wash.

The fact that prominent engineers from all parts of the country applied for this work is some indication of its importance, and in appointing Mr. Modjeski the committee is gratified that it has been able to secure the services of one whose reputation as a bridge builder is nation wide. Mr. Modjeski has already been notified of his appointment and is expected in Portland at an early date when he will confer with Frank B. Riley, vice president of the Pacific Highway for Oregon, regarding many details that have already been worked out.

In Mr. Riley's opinion the cost of the bridge will not exceed the cost of other bridges across great rivers like the Missouri and Mississippi. It will depend of course upon the type of bridge erected, and while this fundamental detail has not yet been settled it seems safe to assume that nothing less than a series of spans can be entertained because no other plans would adequately provide for traffic of all descriptions.

This bridge and the Pacific Highway bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma have both commanded national attention through the subcommittee of the House of Representatives which reported favorably on the Underwood resolution. This resolution provides for the appointment of a federal committee to recommend the construction of certain post roads and bridges necessary for the completion of these highways and will probably pass the House within the course of a few days. Equally favorable action by the Senate is confidently expected.

When these two projects are completed all important rivers on the Pacific Highway will be spanned with permanent steel structures, the bridge across the Fraser River at New Westminster, B. C., having already been built by the provincial government. This bridge is available for all kinds of traffic, including steam and electric railways.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The first shipment of apricots of the season reached the market yesterday. Two carloads were in the consignment. They were from Thermal and sold at $4 a crate. Following the arrival of cherries the day before and apricots and dewberries, which sold yesterday at 8 cents a pound. The dewberries were from Whittier and when the first shipment reached the market they sold at 30 cents a pound. There were ten trays received yesterday.

New crop fruit, now that it has fairly started, will continue to come rapidly, in daily increasing quantities. Cherries dropped to $3.50 a ten-pound box, receipts amounting to about 25 boxes as against 15 the preceding day, when they sold better. The cherries were in quality better than was anticipated for the first of the season.

A carload shipment of crystal white onions arrived from Mexico, selling at $1.10 a lug box. The onions were of excellent quality. The receipts of onions from local points, especially Imperial Valley, amounted to 543 crates. The market was steady.

Beans were weak, lentils declining from $1.50 to $1. Other beans were unchanged, activity being centered in Lady Washington, black eyes and lentils.

Bellefleur apples advanced 15 cents on the top price. The market is getting cleaned up on last year's crop. The demand for the fruit is good. Strawberries dropped to 4 and 7 cents a basket. Receipts were larger than usual, but as the season advances there is a growing demand for the berries.

Cabbage took another drop, the new quotation being $1.40 and $1.50 a sack. New crop stock is increasing in quantity daily and the quality is improving.

Orchards

Already planted may now be bought in the Yucaipa valley. These places were set one and two years ago to Winesaps, Rome Beauty and Arkansas Blacks, and the trees have made a fine growth, having been well cared for by competent orchardists. Yucaipa trees begin to bear the third year and yield a handsome income the fourth year, which increases for many, many years as the big trees in the upper valley prove. The number of planted orchards on the market is very limited and soon will be bought up for this season. They are elegant investments for people who do not wish to plant and care for their own places. Competent orchardists in the valley will care for the trees, irrigating, cultivating and pruning for $10 per acre per year, and do it right. They make a business of caring for orchards. The improvements in the valley are advancing at a lively rate. Planting hundreds of acres, grading streets, finishing the laying of the water mains, building homes, opening stores, and starting two churches. The elegant new grammar school building is completed and was first occupied last week. We should have stated above that the planted one year orchards may be bought on the same easy terms as the land is sold only six percent interest on deferred payments. And don't forget the new subdivision now ready in the lower valley adjoining famous Redlands. Come now, go with us to see for yourself this beautiful valley only 40 miles from Orange county. We go two or three times a week. Free trips through valley.

Sturdy Stutz 5-Passenger Touring Car

THE STURDY STUTZ

The Sturdy Stutz Model Car proved its superior class in a day. It has grown in public esteem ever since.

Entered in the International Sweepstakes Races at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway—pitted against the fastest speed cars of America and Europe—the Sturdy Stutz covered the 500-mile course in 442 minutes without mechanical adjustments of any kind.

Later the Sturdy Stutz furnished the only non-stop performance of 200 miles in the Fairmount Park Races, where it finished second in its class. And again, in the Santa Monica Races—the Sturdy Stutz made a non-stop record—and traveled 151 miles in 125 minutes.

"The Car That Made Good in a Day—Now Makes Good Every Day"

The Sturdy Stutz has proven its superior class to the motoring public. It has proven that the soundness of the Stutz basic design is a fact—not a theory.

Superior engineering and masterful workmanship in the Sturdy Stutz Car—under the guiding hand of Engineer Harry C. Stutz—are so blended as to produce the greatest motor car value offered in America. It is the car which gives permanent satisfaction to owners.

The Sturdy Stutz is designed with a perfectly proportioned and balanced chassis—attractive two, four and five-passenger body styles.

The "Story of the Sturdy Stutz" is a handsome new booklet which we send free on request to any address.

Elmer Preston is home from San Bernardino where he has been in business college, for the summer. He expects to return in the fall and finish his college course.

W. W. Sweetser was a business visitor on Tuesday to Los Angeles.

Miss Irene Waltz and Mr. Estes Waltz entertained a few of their friends. The evening was spent in games. Refreshments were served. Ice cream would have been one of the refreshments, but some person or persons kindly removed the freezer and the ice cream from the back porch. Mrs. Waltz will be pleased to have the freezer returned, also the spoon taken with it, as it was a family relic.

The many friends of Mr. Ray Beardsley will be glad to know that he is greatly improved and will be moved from Dr. Violett's Hospital to his home next Monday.

Mrs. H. C. Powell with two little children, started today for a six week's stay in San Luis Obispo County, visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Minnie Christensen was married at the home of her parents, to Mr. J. P. True, of Los Angeles, on May 1. Only a few friends were present.

The Eighth grade of the grammar school had a picnic in Santa Argus Canyon. Miss Cox and Mrs. True chaperoned them.

Mrs. Frances Lund of Chicago, one of E. Beardsley's sisters, who is spending the summer here with friends and relatives, is spending this week at Huntington Beach.

WILL REDUCE THE ACREAGE

Many Celery Growers Will Turn Their Attention to
Beets and Beans

Huntington Beach News: According to George W. Moore's information to the Huntington Beach News, the celery acreage in the neighboring peatlands will again be reduced for the coming season. Mr. Moore estimates that there will be fully five hundred acres less planted this year than last, in spite of the fact that remarkably high prices were obtained by growers in 1911. The growing of celery in this section has decreased year by year, for the past five years, but it was thought that the success of the growers this season would have a tendency to increase the acreage for 1912. The reverse, however, seems to be the case. The reduction in the celery acreage is being planted to beets and beans.

BANNER MONTH FOR THE ANGEL CITY

Los Angeles Celebrated April
by Achieving Her Greatest Prosperity

LOS ANGELES, May 3.—April proved another banner month in the prosperity of Los Angeles, all lines of activity showing remarkable increases and breaking records.

The bank clearings for the month totaled $97,792,093.13, an increase of $4,549,288.79 over the highest previous month in the history of the clearing house. This was March, 1912, when $93,242,804.34 was cleared.

Building permits for the month smashed all previous marks and the total cost of construction represented was $2,650,461. Compared with April, 1911, the increase for this year totals more than $1,000,000.

Customs receipts for April amounted to $54,378.65, a gain of approximately $10,000 over April, 1911, when the receipts were $51,024.54. Internal revenue receipts also showed a gratifying gain, the total for the month being $82,555.73, as compared with $73,101.25 in April, 1911.

Best Bank Record in U. S.

Bank clearing records were smashed in April when $97,792,093.13, was cleared, a sum $4,549,288.79 greater than the highest previous record, established in March, 1912.

"This total gain," declared R. B. Grigsby of the Los Angeles Clearing House yesterday, "is greater, in ratio to the size of the cities to Los Angeles, than in any other city in the United States. With only thirty days in this month, it is a remarkable record."

Game of Farmer
Any other trade can be substituted for farming in this game if desired, as, for instance, the baker, the draper, but the farmer is often used for it. It is the object of the farmer to enter into conversation with the different members of the party and to lead them into saying certain words prohibited by the game. These words, for example, could be butter, eggs, yes, no and I. All the questions and re-
